

Wichita Falls FAASTeam presents:

2nd Kickapoo Scavenger Hunt - Safety Seminar

This seminar will include a Flying Scavenger Hunt. Attendees need not fly, but that is part of the fun. Participants will be provided an envelope before take-off containing clues about the turn points of their route. At each turn point, they will perform a specific task. Complete information for this event can be found at:

<http://check6.wikispaces.com/Scavenger+Hunt>

The ground portion of the seminar will be a presentation by Jim McElvain entitled "Not all annuals are created equal -- What should you be getting for your money?" In case of inclement weather, the flying portion will be scrubbed and the event will revert to a standard two-program Safety Seminar replacing the flight portion with a seminar presentation by Bill Smith entitled "The makings of a military safety investigator -- Who's looking into your accident?" Wings Credit will be assigned to attendees.
